Susan has a positive outlook on life and more than three decades of experience in the beauty industry. Susan has shared her considerable knowledge, touring the world for 14 years motivating and educating beauty professionals! She has appeared on both local and national television shows performing numerous Image updates and makeovers on men & women. "I believe in treating people how I would like to be treated, the simple yet beautiful golden rule".

Susan

I'm the most grateful person today for all that I am! I'm a mom of two beautiful daughters, both talented and beautiful from the inside out. I have two amazing grandkids who are wonders, full of life and pure love! I have always "worked to work" and now I'm working to make a difference! With God in my heart I wish to give back all that I have been blessed with. I hope to help more people, touch more people's lives and share each other's dreams. I am excited to make 2017 remarkable!
